

A2X Markets and Invicta Holdings
Media release

Invicta, industrial goods and services group, to list on A2X

Tuesday, 6 August 2019: Invicta Holdings Limited Ordinary Shares (share code: IVT) with a market cap of R2,6 billion and Invicta Holdings Limited Preference Shares (share code: IVTP) with a market cap of R660 million have been approved for a secondary listing on A2X Markets and will list on Tuesday, 13 August 2019.

Invicta, which operates in the industrial consumables, capital equipment and spare parts industries and employs over 4 000 people worldwide, will retain its primary listings on the JSE and its issued share capital will be unaffected by its secondary listings on A2X.

Invicta CEO Arnold Goldstone said, “We are committed to creating long-term value for our stakeholders and believe our secondary listings on A2X further underpin this commitment. Not only does it align with global best practice but it gives our investors a choice of venue on which to transact and an opportunity to save money.”

Kevin Brady, A2X CEO said “We are delighted to welcome Invicta to our platform. The benefit of secondary listing on A2X, is that our lower-cost fee structure helps drive a better-quality market by narrowing spreads and increasing liquidity. Investors then have a choice of looking across markets to ensure they get best available price when transacting. We look forward to demonstrating these benefits to Invicta and its shareholders.”

The Invicta listing will bring the number of securities available for trade on A2X to 28 with a combined market capitalisation of over R2.4 trillion. A2X boasts listings from many other key sectors, including media, mining, banking, retail, FMCG, financial services, insurance, healthcare and telecommunications.

A2X is a licensed stock exchange which provides a secondary listing venue for companies. It is regulated by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority (formerly the Financial Services Board) and the Prudential Authority (SARB) in terms of the Financial Markets Act. A2X began trading in October 2017 and has nine approved brokers that account for about 50% of market activity.

ENDS