

A2X Markets Announcement

Capital Appreciation lists on A2X

18 December 2020: South African FinTech group Capital Appreciation Limited (Capprec) shares become available on A2X today.

Capital Appreciation will retain its primary listing on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange (JSE) and its issued share capital will be unaffected by its secondary listing on A2X.

Capprec is a financial technology company with proprietary and licensed platforms, solutions, products and applications targeted at the B2B market. CAPPREC's client base includes all major banking institutions in South Africa, as well as many niche banks, large financial services institutions and other financial services companies. In recent times, the Company has also successfully diversified into the Retail, Telecoms and Healthcare sectors. Capital Appreciation has a market capitalisation of R1.5 billion.

A2X CEO, Kevin Brady said, "We are delighted to have a FinTech company of Capital Appreciation's standing join our platform today and we look forward to demonstrating the benefits that a secondary listing on A2X will bring to both Capital Appreciation and its investors."

Capital Appreciation joins other well-known companies on A2X including, Naspers, Standard Bank, Sanlam, Sasol, Aspen Pharmacare, Exxaro, AVI, Mr Price and Famous Brands. The listing next week will bring the number of securities available for trade on A2X to 39 with a combined market capitalisation of more than R2.2 trillion. A2X has listings from many key sectors, including media, property, mining, banking, retail, FMCG, financial services, insurance, healthcare and telecommunications.

A2X is a licensed stock exchange which provides a secondary listing venue for companies. It is regulated by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and the Prudential Authority (SARB) in terms of the Financial Markets Act. A2X began trading in October 2017 and has eight approved brokers, including five of the top six largest brokers as measured by value traded.

ENDS