A2X Markets

Sun International lists on A2X

Monday, 12 April 2021: South African hospitality, gaming and entertainment group, Sun International Limited (share code SUI) shares become available on A2X today.

Sun International retains its primary listing on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange (JSE) and its issued share capital will be unaffected by its secondary listing on A2X.

The Sun International group has a diverse portfolio of assets including world-class five-star hotels, modern and well-located casinos, and some of the world's premier resorts. It also owns South Africa's leading timeshare model and is the industry leader in online betting through its SunBet platform.

Sun International CE, Anthony Leeming remarked , "Our listing on A2X provides our shareholders with the choice of an additional platform on which to transact our shares and to capture the savings offered through the lower exchange fees and narrower spreads."

A2X CEO, Kevin Brady said, "Sun International has been a leading brand in South Africa since the 1960s, and its longevity is testament to its ability to adapt and recognise opportunity. We are pleased to be welcoming them to our market today."

Sun International joins other well-known companies on A2X, including Naspers, Prosus, Standard Bank, Sanlam, Sasol, Aspen Pharmacare, Exxaro, AVI, Mr Price and Famous Brands. Their listing brings the number of securities available for trade on A2X to 40 with a combined market capitalisation of R5.2 trillion. A2X has listings from many key sectors, including media, property, mining, banking, retail, FMCG, financial services, insurance, healthcare and telecommunications.

A2X is a licensed stock exchange that provides a secondary listing venue for companies. It is regulated by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and the Prudential Authority (SARB) in terms of the Financial Markets Act. A2X commenced trading in October 2017 and has eight approved brokers, including five of the top six largest brokers as measured by value traded.

ENDS