Sygnia lists 12th ETF on A2X

Friday, 14 May 2021: The Sygnia Itrix MSCI Emerging Markets 50 exchange traded fund (ETF) has been approved for a secondary listing on A2X Markets.

Sygnia's newest ETF lists on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange (JSE) today, 14 May and will also be available for trade on A2X from 21 May 2021. The Sygnia Itrix MSCI Emerging Markets 50 ETF joins eleven other Sygnia Itrix ETFs on A2X.

The objective of Sygnia's Emerging Markets ETF is to provide an investment vehicle that gives easy access to investors who want to achieve long term capital appreciation in tracking the performance of the MSCI Emerging Markets 50 (MSCI EM 50 Index).

The Sygnia Itrix MSCI Emerging Markets 50 ETF is a high-risk, passively managed index-tracking fund which aims to replicate the price and yield performance of the MSCI Emerging Markets 50 Index. Sygnia is the largest international equity ETF provider in South Africa, offering investors the widest range of ETFs that track international equity markets.

The listing of this ETF brings the number of instruments available for trade on A2X to 52, with a combined market capitalisation of R5 trillion. A2X was authorised by its dual regulators, the FSCA and the Prudential Authority, to secondary list exchange traded products in 2019 and will now offer 15 ETFs and 2 ETNs on its market.

A2X is a licensed stock exchange that provides a secondary listing venue for companies. It is regulated by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and the Prudential Authority (SARB) in terms of the Financial Markets Act. A2X began trading in October 2017, with nine approved brokers accounting for about 50% of market activity.
