News release

EOH to list on A2X

Thursday 5 August 2021: EOH Holdings Limited has been approved for secondary listing on A2X Markets and its ordinary shares will be available for trade from Friday 13 August 2021.

EOH Limited will retain its listing on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange (JSE) and its issued share capital will be unaffected by its secondary listing on A2X.

EOH is one of South Africa's largest technology services companies and has a wide range of solutions in industry consulting, IT services, systems integration, software, industrial technologies and business process outsourcing.

Megan Pydigadu, EOH Group Financial Director said, "EOH's decision to list on A2X will give our shareholders access to an additional platform with lower transaction fees. This is in line with the Group's commitment to continuously find ways to increase value for shareholders."

Kevin Brady, CEO of A2X Markets, added, "EOH's ability to use the latest technology to cut costs and drive more efficient business practices resonates with us and we look forward to demonstrating the benefits a listing on A2X brings to their shareholders."

The listing on 13 August will bring the number of instruments available for trade on A2X to 53 with a combined market capitalisation of over R4 trillion. EOH joins other well-known companies on A2X, including Naspers, Prosus, Sanlam, Sasol, Aspen Pharmacare, Exxaro, AVI, Mr Price, Growthpoint, Momentum Metropolitan and Famous Brands.

A2X has listings from many key sectors, including media, property, technology, mining, banking, retail, FMCG, financial services, insurance, healthcare and telecommunications.

A2X is a licensed stock exchange that provides a secondary listing venue for companies. It is regulated by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and the Prudential Authority (SARB) in terms of the Financial Markets Act. A2X began trading in October 2017, with seven approved brokers that account for over 60% of market activity.
