Satrix CEO, Fikile Mbhokota said, "The team at Satrix is continually looking at ways to add value for our investors. By listing our ETFs on A2X, Satrix ETF investors will now be able to take advantage of additional liquidity and lower exchange fees offered on A2X when transacting.”

Kevin Brady, CEO of A2X markets, added, “Satrrix is a pioneer in the South African index-tracking landscape, having launched South Africa’s first ETF in 2000. Its ability to provide innovative and inclusive investment solutions to the South African marketplace is evident in the fact that it is not only the largest but also the most awarded ETF provider in South Africa.”

Satrrix won nine awards at the 2023 SALTA awards*. Furthermore, its mainstay Satrrix 40 ETF won the People’s Choice Award for favourite ETF for the sixth consecutive year.

These ETF listings will bring the number of securities available for trade on A2X to 166 with a combined market capitalisation of over R9 trillion. A2X has listings from many key sectors, including media, property, mining, banking, retail, FMCG, financial services, insurance, healthcare and telecommunications. A2X was authorised to secondary list ETFs and ETNs in 2019 and will now have 63 ETFs on its market.

A2X is a licensed stock exchange that provides a secondary listing venue for companies. It is regulated by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and the Prudential Authority (SARB) in terms of the Financial Markets Act. A2X began trading in October 2017, with nine approved brokers accounting for about 50% of market activity.
